SUMMARY

---

A curious full-blown developer with strong creative thinking skills, high energy, and integrity, skilled in developing complex solutions, interested in writing new code. Has the ability to create effective algorithms, interact positively, and communicate appropriately with team members. Able to grasp new technologies and concepts quickly to develop innovative and creative solutions to problems. Always eager to learn about various technologies, tools, and libraries. I have worked in the field of IT (Information Technology) for over 5+ and I have been progressing as a Frontend Developer for 4 years.
